TOP MONTHLY EVENTS ★

Alton Eagle Ice Festival

If you're in town on Jan. 4, head to the Alton Eagle Ice Festival, which celebrates the return of wintering bald eagles to southwest Illinois in grand fashion. At FLOCK Food Truck Park, enjoy eagle-watching shuttle tours, food, drinks, DJ tunes, live ice-carving demonstrations and fire pits with s'more kits. From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., you can also meet a majestic bald eagle from the World Bird Sanctuary. The National Great Rivers Museum, another site of the celebration, will offer talks by eagle experts, spotting scopes that give you a chance to view eagle nests, eagle-themed crafts and other family-friendly activities. If you want to see even more birds of prey, stop by the Audubon Center at Riverlands, where you can embark on a guided bird hike, or take a tour of the Lewis & Clark Confluence Tower, where you can spot bald eagles from 50, 100 and 150 feet in the air!

Chicken and Biscuits

Nothing is sacred in this laugh-out-loud comedy, presented by The Black Rep at Washington University in St. Louis. When rival sisters Beverly and Baneatta bring the drama to their father's funeral – God rest his soul – the side eyes aren't just for each other. As Beverly tries to keep a lid on her daughter's curiosity, Baneatta throws shade at her son and his Jewish boyfriend. In the middle of it all, a family secret is revealed that will have you clutching your pearls.

Funky Butt Brass Band

Straight out of St. Louis, Funky Butt Brass Band will bring their high-energy show to City Winery this January. Expect infectious originals and creative covers from the genre-bending group, who draw inspiration from the Neville Brothers, Prince, WuTang Clan, Willie Nelson and everyone in between. During the performance, savor tapas-style dishes and house-fermented wines from the urban winery.

Anna Bolena

Dive into a world of passion, betrayal and Tudor intrigue with Gaetano Donizetti's operatic masterpiece Anna Bolena. Queen Anne Boleyn, once the king's esteemed mistress, now finds herself out of favor, as King Henry VIII, consumed by a new desire for Jane Seymour, hatches a plot to bring down his wife. Witness the emotional turmoil of a queen facing accusations, the torment of a love lost and the fight for survival in the cutthroat world of the English court.

Monster Jam

Experiencing Monster Jam live, you'll become a fan for life! With astounding trucks, amazing stunts, action-packed excitement and big air, it's the definition of fun for everyone. When Monster Jam returns to The Dome at America's Center on Jan. 18 and 19, you can see 12,000-pound trucks stand on two wheels and then fly through the air. Plus, you'll be in the middle of the action, as you get to score the drivers in real time based on their skills, stunts and saves.

BONUS

Beethoven X Beyoncé

Experience a thrilling blend of pop's queen and classical music's king as Beyoncé's iconic repertoire is seamlessly interwoven with Beethoven's Seventh Symphony. The symphonic world's most joyful celebration of dance becomes the backdrop for this innovative fusion as 15 of Beyoncé's chart-topping hits are seamlessly interwoven to create a new musical journey. Prepare to be mesmerized as three powerhouse female soloists – accompanied by a guest drummer, guitarist/keyboardist and bassist – join forces with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra to deliver a night of musical magic.
